We all, whose names are here enrolled, have "solemnly promised: — to consecrate to the service and glory of God all our faculties and possessions; to strive above all things for the honor and interests of His kingdom; to seek faithfully the conversion of souls; and denying ourselves all ungodliness and every worldly lust, to live soberly, righteously and godly in the world."

We have "engaged; — to search diligently and prayerfully the Word of God; to keep holy the Sabbath-day; to worship with reverence in the closet, the family and the congregation."

We have "entered into covenant with God and the church to watch over each other in Christian love; to seek our mutual growth in grace; to walk together as children of the same Father and disciples of the same Lord."

Now and ever, dearly beloved, may we so think of and pray over this list of names, — so do good and communicate unto the household of faith, as that men may say again, "see how these Christians love one another." Thus will God's name be honored and His kingdom come, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THEO. C. JEROME.
